The Lakes Golf Course

Designed by P.B. Dye. 18 holes, par 72

Re-designed in 2010 by the renowned architect P.B. Dye, the championship golf course crosses through a lush mangrove forest that includes 25 lakes as well as 122 strategically positioned sand traps.

The design capitalizes on the natural beauty of the Bávaro area by incorporating native plants and species around the meticulously manicured greens to provide the best playing surface that meets the highest industry standards.

At 6,655 yards from the professional tees, the 18-hole, par-72 championship course is the newest and most popular course in the Bávaro and Punta Cana region.
